another day to live
another way to go
nobody's in this room
nobody's here for now

wakeup early, i know it's too late to leave with the parade look at my feet moving slowly i'm afraid it's over

naked, a bit sleepy
in my single room
i open the door
and call up, call up the lift

i wish i was in the parade

sometimes i feel my skin sometimes i hear of rest please try to be friendly but i'm too old inside

i'm so gelous but try to be an ordinary girl
i'd like to talk but you know i hate ordinary words
