"Impossible"

You can't do much about the governments policies
You can't to much about the heresies
You can't do too much
To stop the squeeze on society
When you're all out of touch
You can't have much to say
We can put a man on the moon
But we can't find a cure for starvation
Everybody's passing the buck
And there's no realization
Well, ain't it like being impossible
And there ain't no harm in trying
Said ain't it like being impossible
But I'm gonna die trying
You can't do much about the birth of a new age
You can't do much about the old days
You can't do much about the equal and opposite reaction
You can't do much about that satisfaction
I don't know much about it
I didn't listen too much
There's no use in denying
Your piece of luck
Ain't it like being impossible
There ain't any use in hiding and I said, hell, man
Ain't this like being impossible
But I'm gonna die trying
You can't do much about
What's gonna happen today
And you can't do much
About yesterday
You can't say much against
Some angry individual
You can't say much against the majority
Is there any use shouting about it
Will anybody listen
Will anybody back you up
Is it gonna be your mission
Well, ain't it like being impossible
But there ain't no harm in trying and I say, hell, man
Ain't this like being impossible

But I'm gonna die trying
