We've got all this time,
to figure out the rest of our lives.
Maybe my heart will take me miles.
If it does I'll know it's worthwhile.

But in the end I could end up here,
with everything I hold dear.
That's you.
If you're feeling left out, let's get out.
Take a trip. Take a dip.
Just you and me, can't you see,
you've got nothing to worry about at all.

I've been walking around, head in the clouds,
trying to figure it all out.
But it's not as easy as it seems,
now when I have so many dreams.

But in the end I could end up here,
with everything I hold dear.
That's you.
If you're feeling left out, let's get out.
Take a trip. Take a dip.
Just you and me, can't you see,
you've got nothing to worry about at all.

I know you can make it, I know that you're strong.
In case you forget that, I wrote you this song.
Any how, for now, I've got a plan!

Take a trip. Take a dip.
Just you and me, can't you see,
you've got nothing to worry about at all.
