Now I've been looking for someone
Trying to find the right boy to wear on my arm
I must admit it
You simply fit it
You were like a cut above the rest that's why you're winning.

And every night when I close my eyes
I can see you
My perfect type
And I never really thought my dreams would come true
Until I laid eyes on you cause you know you are

Boyfriend material, boyfriend material
That's what you're made of,
It's written on your label
Boyfriend material,
m-m-material
Want everyone to know you're my boyfriend material, boyfriend material boy.
Boyfriend material
m-m-material
Want everyone to know

That you and your perfect charm are both timeless, Never going out of style.
For so many reasons you got it together,
I'm catching feelins
you make me look better

And every night when
I close my eyes
I can see you
My perfect type
And I never really thought my dreams would come true
Until I laid eyes on you cause you know you are

Boyfriend material, boyfriend material
That's what you're made of,
It's written on your label
Boyfriend material,

m-m-material
Want everyone to know you're my
boyfriend material, boyfriend material boy.
Boyfriend material
m-m-material
Want everyone to know

It's all the little things that you do make me wanna sing, yeah yeah.
By the way you're talking to me,
I can tell you've been listening to everything.
And maybe it's the butterflies I get every time i hear your ringtone (ringtone)
and maybe it's cause every single text boy:
I told myself you are the one.

Boyfriend material...

Cause you know you are
Boyfriend material, boyfriend material
That's what you're made of,
It's written on your label
Boyfriend material,
m-m-material
Want everyone to know you're my
boyfriend material, boyfriend material boy.
Boyfriend material
m-m-material
Want everyone to know
