"Let Me Know"

I couldn't see
I couldn't hear
Shut me off when you were near
Like a cloud
A dusty mirror
Disappear, you disappear

All of a sudden
All alone
I'm calling out
I'm calling love's gonna let me know
Like the day you took me home
We counted every minute left to go
My love's gonna let you know

Time without you drags me down
It all feels right with you around
It all feels light with you around
Like that night we hit the ground
And all the lightning sends a chill
Can't forget about you still
All of a sudden all alone
I'm calling out
I'm calling

Love's gonna let me know
Like the day you took me home
My love's gonna let you know

Calling love's gonna let me know
Like the day you took me home
My love's gonna let you know

I'm calling out i'm calling
I'm calling out i'm calling
I'm calling out i'm calling
I'm calling out i'm calling
I'm calling out i'm calling out
