How many times can you put me down
'Til in your heart you realize,
If you choose to criticize
You choose your enemies

Everything that I say and do
In your eyes is always wrong,
Tell me where do I belong
In a sick society

You're no different to me yeah
You're no different,
No different to me

Look at yourself instead of looking at me
With accusation in your eyes,
Do you want me crucified for my profanity

Concealing your crimes behind a Grandeur of lies
Tell me where do I begin
If you think you're without sin
Be the first to cast the stone
You're no different to me yeah
You're no different, no different to me
You're no different to me yeah
You're no different, no different to me
Can't you see, can't you see
You're no different to me
Won't you see, won't you see
You're no different to me

Living my life in a way that I choose
You say I should apologize,
Is that envy in your eyes
Reflecting jealousy

Tell me the truth and I'll admit to my guilt
If you'll try and understand,
But is that blood that's on your hand from your democracy
