Pardon me buddy
for being so bold but this is my girl your dancing with

excuse me partner
for being so cold
but you see, we had a little argument she said it was over and she said we were through oh yeah, now but pardon me buddy but I'm cuttin in on you

and for the tears tht she shed but can't you tell by the look in her eye that she didn't mean a word that she said now darling I'm so glad that I found you whoa girl whoa girl, i want my arms i want my arms all around you

excuse me partner,

whoa boy, whoa boy
I think you better find yourself you better find yourself someone else to dance with because this little girl right here I'm gonna romance with and whoa boy, whoa boy excuse me buddy
