You're just a child
A tiny baby, it's a big old world out there it can drive a person crazy.
But I'm your daddy, I'm gonna hold your hand.
There are some things you got to learn as you grow up to be a man

Gotta treat the pretty ladies right Gotta make them scream all night Gotta get them booze and bling, make em wanna dangle up your dirty thing.
But baby gotta take it slow, take the time to make it feel and grow.
When you wanna do a ladies pants, gotta move with her, gotta do the dance.

Take it baby from a man who knows
Your diddie daddie he knows the hoes
I can make them take of all the clothes, Whanna humpty humprty, whanna self expose Your'e just a biddie baby now, but as you grow I'm gonna teach you how To make the ladies wanna touch your love, but when you do the deed you better wear a glove cuz

you are just a little man child, but I'm telling you how to make the bitches go wild Make em, ho ho ho ho Go, ho ho ho x2

Gotta buy them the fancy wine Gotta get them feelin' fine Pretend to listening' to what they say cuz they think it's sensitive and that's okay tell a lady that you like her friends, Cuz little baby when the music ends
She might let you take it far Have sex with you in the back of your car

Take it baby from a man who knows
Your diddie daddie he knows the hoesâ€¦

And by the time, you get out of that crib You're gonna make a baby like your diggity daddy did you are just a little
