If all's fair in love, like all's fair in war
I told her...It ain't for the fighting
Darling that I came back to you for
But somewhere south of Lethbridge
Down by Del Bonita
We crossed the line into something so fine
I just had to see her...

(Chorus)

She cried...You..you've got a cowboy's heart
She cried...You..you've got a cowboy's heart

Well I said, The closest I got to ever being a rider,
Was growing up in a one horse town
And I never roped a wild one to save my life baby,
But in time I might settle down
So give me one last chance to show ya
Honey that our love was meant to be
Well she kneeled down there as if to kiss me
And wispered I wanna believe

(Chorus)

She cried...You..you've got a cowboy's heart
She cried...You..you've got a cowboy's heart

You may be right at home today, but you'll be
Long gone tomorrow
Out ropin' the wind of your dreams
Out running your sorrow
You've got a cowboys heart
You've got a cowboys heart

Like the dark side of the moon
That's a shadow that the sun can never know
I never let her see the other side of me
Now her words still haunt my soul

Crying.....You..you've got a cowboy's heart
She cried...You..you've got a cowboy's heart

You may be right at home today, but you'll be

Long gone tomorrow
You'll be out there ropin' the wind of your dreams
Out running your sorrow

You've got a cowboys heart
She said...You've got a cowboys heart
Yeah, she cried you...you....
You've got a cowboys heart
You've got a cowboys heart
You've got a cowboys heart...
