By the time
I lost my faith in mankind
I said I knew it was better to fight and to shatter my home

I saw the realm dig deep in my undug grave
The unfought warriors on parade of hate How could I ever believe I would make it (Ooh)

Time went by
It's the same old story, yeah
Cast a spell
on the fears of glory,
in your head

Chaos or Control
I am dreaming, believing, reciting the things that I see
A bright memory
was lost inside of me this is a world in shame of what it has come to be

Tyranny
A bitter truth from the inside We teared the planet to pieces with forces we built on a lie, yeah We play the role as god on a sacred place
We put up borders without a trace or grace
How will we ever break out of containment, (Ooh)

Chaos or Control
I am dreaming, believing, reciting the things that I see
A bright memory
was lost inside of me
this is a world in shame of what it has come to be

Time went by
It's the same old story, yeah
Cast a spell
on the fears of glory,
in your head

Time went by
There's a new day up ahead
And the water streams in new directions
Chaos or control

Chaos or Control
I am dreaming, believing, reciting the things that I see
A bright memory

Chaos or Control
I am dreaming, believing, reciting the things that I see
A bright memory
