My heart is beating
To the circle of life repeating
I hope for a meaning
'Cause it's all I've got when day turns into night

There's a feeling
I'm keeping
In the ray of light
I'm a soldier
Of time

Do You Dare?
To face the fear of fear
Do You Dare?
To raise your head and hear
We can go
Wherever life will take us
So raise your hands and cheer
Do You Dare?
To stay with me right here

There's a raindrop falling Down from the clouds in the sky, and I'm calling for shelter
And I am on my own, in the danger zone
But I've got my directions

There's a feeling
I'm keeping
In the ray of light
I'm a soldier
Of time

Do You Dare?
To face the fear of fear
Do You Dare?
To raise your head and hear
We can go
Wherever life will take us
So raise your hands and cheer
Do You Dare?

To stay with me right here

Tonight
I believe it

Tonight
I can feel it

Tonight
I believe it

I can feel it, feel it

Do You Dare?
To face the fear of fear
Do You Dare?
To raise your head and hear
We can go
Wherever life will take us
So raise your hands and cheer
Do You Dare?
To stay with me right here

(To face the fear of fear)
(I'm a soldier)
