You might think you've been to places
Think that you've seen many faces
Let the night-time sky prove that you are wrong
Just count the billions of stars
They are signifying that
The world around you stretch into the sky
Have you ever imagined nothing ever had an end
As if the future's always there for you to conquer

Somewhere, Someone's dreaming of your smile

Dream of what
You've Never Seen
It helped a lot
When you forgot
Why you are here
Don't forget
We're not alone
And I'm sure it's better than
Anything you've imagined

When your days seem never-ending
And your patience is descending
Think of what's to come, though it will take a while
Just gaze upon a twilight skyline
It is signifying that
The world has colors you have pushed aside
Have you ever imagined
Every chance is requisite
As if the world reached out it's hand for you to seize it

Somewhere, Someone's dreaming of your smile

Dream of what
You've Never Seen
It helped a lot
When you forgot
Why you are here
Don't forget
We're not alone
And I'm sure it's better than

Anything you've imagined
We'll watch the world with new horizons

We are not alone
You will be overblown
The sun is up
And the grass is green
It make's me feel so serene

We are not alone, you will be overblown
The sun is up, and the grass is green
That's what you've never seen
