What is she covering up?
What is she lying about?
She's hesitating...
If she's loosing slow I need to know
But if she's moving fast...
Why is this happening now?
Why does this happen to me all the time?

Don't give up on me
Love
And I won't give up on you
Love

Squeeze me 'til I can't breathe
I know she's lying
You know the feeling
I can't believe in one of us
I can't know how long this love will last
So stay up in bed with me
Stay up and play with me all day and all night

Don't give up on me
Love
And I won't give up on you
Love
I got to wait for the baby
Love me girl

Squeeze me 'til I can't breathe
I know she's lying
You know the feeling
Because neither one of us can know how long this love will last
So stay up in bed with me
Stay up and play with me all day and all night
