Don't ask me for any favors
And I won't ask how you do it
Leave me alone now
'Cause after all now
Dealing with you is a nuisance

Ever since I was young I've been wondering this Why we walk on eggshells from the holy dimwitted
And they who if your tongue slips
We won't have to take the ties
Give all of our hallowed lies to

Don't ask me for any favors
And I won't ask how you do it
Leave me alone now
'Cause after all now
Dealing with you is a nuisance

If you could laugh like yourself what difference would it make?
You could ignore day cartoons
Say you wouldn't try not to pray
But if distances persist
We'll preach to choirs
Raising I will need the sign
We'll raise the sign of grace

This feud is getting old
No one is gonna be told to go alone

Most the questions have easy answers
Our only chance is let them give all

Don't ask me for any favors
And I won't ask how you do it
Leave me alone now
'Cause after all now
Dealing with you is a nuisance
