I don't understand why I am so attend in love with you lying alone in bed got pictures in my head what you might do?

You dont need to fly escape but why are you always late

It's hard to love, you, why do you treat me like you do the stress you put me through you drive me crazy leaving me weak and checking , too all I want is you
it's hard to love you
it's hard to love you

You, day another fight Patchy bags and everythings alright again can you walk through the line am I the only one who song, you're mine but when you are here my doubts will dissappear

Refrain

hard to love you
it's so hard to love you but it's harder not to

Refrain
