

Year Of The Rabbit "River"

You said you could take this
You said it wouldn't get ugly again
You know, you can't meditate this
You wish it never began

I want to be sober
I want to be like a river
Just let my life flow through me
But I can't connect with a loaded gun at my head

You started to worry
You bent yourself to get under the hand
And now, with your shipwreck stories
You say you don't understand

I want to be sober
I want to be like a river
Just let my life flow through me
But I can't connect with a loaded gun at my head
