"Useless Junk"

I'm consumed
Keep me connected to the ground
They make me out to be so cold

An exercise of self-criticism
I am sure that it won't come off

What have I got?. It's a drastic change...
And I can consider things are going well...

Look inside
Muscles contracting
Getting numb
Nerves made of stone

How soon we forget it, How quick we ignore where we are coming from
Refresh my mind frequently
What have I got?. It's a drastic change...

And I can consider things are going well...

You're the North
Don't move away or I'll become
Useless junk
I am begging you
Don't give up
I've never felt so insecure.
Useless junk

I am begging you

How soon we forget it, How quick we ignore where we are coming from
Refresh my mind frequently

Unusual terms.
I closed my mouth
Tears describing what we had to do
They were changing the rules

You're the North
Don't move away or I'll become
Useless junk
I am begging you
Don't give up
I've never felt so insecure.
Useless junk
I am begging you

You're the north
Don't move away or I'll become
Useless junk
I am begging you
Don't give up
I've never felt so insecure.
Useless junk
I am begging you
