Things are changing everywhere
I'm not the same but I don't care
We're all messed up inside somewhere

Things are changing everywhere
I'm not the same and I don't care
We're all messed up inside somewhere

I'm getting older something's wrong
All my dreams are gone
My personality is such a tragedy
Welcome to reality
Individuality is something I am looking for

20 years from now
Kind of scares me
Things are changing
I'm almost 18

The problems that we face today
Never seem to go away
Tell me I am doing okay

The problems that we face today
Never seem to go away
Find the answer somewhere someday

I'm getting older
Something's wrong
All my dreams are gone
My personality is such a tragedy
Welcome to reality
Individuality is something I am looking for

20 years from now
Kind of scares me
Things are changing
I'm almost 18

[3x]

I think I try to hard to find

Who I am inside my mind
Maybe I just don't belong
In this world I don't belong

Things are changing everywhere
Not the same and I don't care
What matters now is I was wrong
I needed You all along
