(Verse)

Lying on your bed
Saying anything but lies
I just wanted you to know
Just wanted you to know

Your heart next to mine
Everything is cold
And you are mine to hold
You are mine to hold

(Pre-Chorus)

Please tell me
This is the way it's supposed to be

(Chorus)

I don't wanna see the day
Where your heart is given away
As I hold you
Now as I kiss you
How badly I will miss you
Today is our day
Please tell me that you'll stay

(Verse 2)

Your lying through your teeth
Crying in my arms
I just wanted to let you know
Just wanted to let you know

I'll hold you 'till I die
Until I'm in my grave
And I will always cry
At the sound of your name

(Pre-Chorus)

Please tell me
This is the way it's supposed to be

(Chorus)

I don't wanna see the day
Where your heart is given away
As I hold you
Now as I kiss you
How badly I will miss you
Today is our day
Please tell me that you'll stay

(Desperate I will fall)
(Waiting for so long...)
(You lie through your teeth) x2
(Please tell me)

(Pre-Chorus Quietly)

Please tell me
This is the way it's supposed to be

(Chorus) x2

I don't wanna see the day
Where your heart is given away
As I hold you
Now as I kiss you
How badly I will miss you
Today is our day
Please tell me that you'll stay
