(Scream)

(There you go, always doing what your told)
(Take your heart, your precious heart. Hold it up to the moonlight)

I know your laughing at me
Yet holding me tightly
Frozen from these chains, I hang
Thinking of you...

(Thinking of you)

(Hold me back, there's no silence in white and black)
(Please don't cry, the gleam of kindness glows in your eyes)

Shattered into pieces
My bleeding heart away from me
You've read all the letters
Through my eyes i've seen

(Quiets down)

We now know...

(That were walking on the walls, as we hear the voices call)
(Walking on the walls, I'll make sure that you don't fall)

Your heart next to mine
I think of you even though I'm blind
Kiss me one last time x2

(Long Screams)

You say you love me, yet I love you.
