Some people run from some people who wanna save
'em

Some people got guns some people you wanna stay
from

When the train rode in why did all my friends turned around and

Said goodbye?

Cuz some people don't know they standing at the station...

-1st verse

Come on in, I'm making room for you, her, and him Also for those, we, them, and they, ?Three course meal on a silver

Tray

Lay in the lab of luxury, watch fine wine incubate With the white cloth layin off to the side, one for the hands one for

The face

One for the luck, one for the pride, one way ride out of yesterday

You can lay down or you can lie, just don't lie straight to my face

Got a place you can keep the coats at, and a safe for the jewelry

Got a place to develop the Kodak, to keep up with the memories

And the picture frame from the past, you can hang it up on the wall

And you can watch it past from the back of the train, as you leave it

All

You might seen a few trains come by, but this train you never saw

You better make up your mind the conductor is saying

"All

Aboard!"

-Hook

Some people run from some people who wanna save
'em

When the train rode in why did all my friends turned
around and
Said goodbye?
station...
ALL ALL ABOARD!
Opportunity is in place, and it might never comeback
this way
You better go and get in that train
ALL ALL ABOARD!
this way
-2nd verse
It's such a view, but it's reserved for just a few Such the luck for such as who, but who is me and who is you
You got a free ride that you can't refuse, choice in the form of a new

Caboose
A chance in the shape of a railroad track, hope inside make the Move
Break from the old and create the new,
Leave all the fake and replace the true Pack the bags, leave the name tag, strain the ticket God payed for You
Trade for blim and maybe blue, but they're not made to block the Light
The light from the sun will see us through, ?
And you can sleep well in the peace of night, Cuz you might not see it twice in the small town where you live?
So believe in the right to life cuz they left you dead this road you Steer
never saw
"All Aboard!"
