Tune in, tune in, tune in, tune in

I just can't justify your love, I'm just too scared to watch
TV

'Cause in the glass static's all I see, melted faces

And in the mirror speaking tongues

As I hear a siren travelin' by I can't wake up, I try and I try

Everybody sugar in my bed

Everybody clouds up in my head

Everybody disastrous, everybody all after us

Everybody, everybody, everybody, everybody

Everybody's talkin' 'bout me and my baby

Makin' love 'til the mornin' light

Makin' love 'til the mornin' mornin' light

Makin' love 'til the mornin'

I just can't justify my thoughts, draw symbols on the carpeted parking lots

Perhaps the pollen in the air turns into a stapler

Poppin' pills to stay awake but all them pills make me shake

Shiver shout and run about but all the time I want to cry out

Everybody sugar in my bed

Everybody clouds up in my head

Everybody disastrous, everybody all after us

Everybody, everybody, everybody, everybody

Everybody's talkin' 'bout me and my baby

Makin' love 'til the mornin' light

Makin' love 'til the mornin' mornin' light
Makin' love 'til the mornin'

Be my sunshine when the dark clouds rumble
And together we can try to avoid trouble
And we'll run to somewhere where the grass grows greener
And the water's clearer and our blood flows cleaner
