Time is just a number, it takes you by the hand And descending like the shepherd dog buried in the sand
Your magnet eyes move fluid in my veins
A Phoenix wind is murdering the planes

I kinda feel like, a wind is coming soon
I kinda feel like, the clock is well past doom
The other face of, illusion not as weak
Has been revealed by, the tricks of all asleep

When they said when they said your mind could get better
Was a bulb above your head
No more trivial wagers you could turn the tables
Not a single page was read

When they said when they said life would get better
If weÂ ?
And the hardest winds and the flattest roads
Were the only ones ahead

I kinda feel like, a wind is coming soon
I kinda feel like, the clock is well past doom
The other face of, illusion not as weak
Has been revealed by, the tricks of all asleep

Nothing's as it seems, nightmares are healing your dreams
Nothing's as it seems, when your nightmares are
healing your dreams
Healing your dreams

Nothing's as it seems, nightmares are healing your
dreams
Nothing's as it seems, when your nightmares are
healing your dreams
