cellophane flowers never happened for me been sleeping the day off watching the night fall covering nowhere filling my time share

there's a woman in the mirror in a firey state as she motions to me I start turning away she's lifting her dress up trying to keep up

oh you'd be surprised how we race

while our lives
erased

another alone on an everyday night thinking the morning looking for alright warming the blood flow with poison I dont know why maybe the rain stops following me dripping the colors running the daylight over the cloud burst hoping they don't burst right before my eyes

our lives

we know we're lost we're lost we're nowhere now
now we know we're lost and nowhere now maybe the rain will stop following me with millions of colors reflected in daylight right on the kickdrum turning the sound up

I think in the morning I think I'll be alright watching the blood flow no wonder I don't know why there's a woman in the mirror in a fiery state she motions to me I start pulling away

all the way up

oh don't look surprised

erased
