Look mama, no hands
I'm standing on top of the motherfucking hundred
grand
They took a shot, airball
You think I give a fuck about you pussys, not at all
Yela, how's it going?
Oh man, I'm standing on top of the motherfucking
hundred grand
They took a shot, airball
You think I give a fuck about you pussys, not at all

Ain't no reason to quit, what the fuck I look like
To put a cyst and desist on this heat that I spit, shit, bitch!
I believe in my wits, enough to believe on my kids
Won't be home till christmas Chevy's on the wish list, no santa clause, no m'am, no problems
I'm stuck in play like a fair ball
Know you love to call it trails and hip hopin in the south
But this country rap tunes
Got a bitch in the back room with a open mouth ah
But sacrifice it all and lord knows it
With my life on the bullseye
Make a camera be jealous of my focus
And that's shady if you ain't notice
The things loaded, I put that on my great grand daddy named otis
In a traffic jam, I got my lane open
It came with the same token
You did and crack the bank open
When they said the rap game was in the drought
I was swimming in so much dope I had break my life and test it out

Like, look mama, no hands
I'm standing on top of the motherfucking hundred
They took a shot, airball
You think I give a fuck about you pussys, not at all
Yela, how's it going?

They took a shot, airball
You think I give a fuck about you pussys, not at all

Get a work out bitch, run your lips
I know you'd dig a hole six feet deep with a spoon
Just to see me trip
You window shopping and can't see the gift
When the shit is sitting in front of your face
Like see me in between the bricks
If the world had name for me, I'd be solarickly
This whole shit started out real, bitch bet I can
And I do it with casio and a farmers tan and
On the top of the hundred grand, fuck bet I stand
And I made it through cause I had heart
Waking up to roaches in my cereal box
But it that's a bad start food stamps in the packed lunch
On some of these bitch ass rappers would take a dick to say they had it Hard
Don't make one of these sloos go and intercept you Enter your dorm room and punk you internet goons
I'm spring loaded with the assault of an old man drinkin a fifth
And stepin with my knee in an old van like hey

Look mama, no hands
I'm standing on top of the motherfucking hundred
They took a shot, airball
You think I give a fuck about you pussys, not at all
Yela, how's it going?
Oh man, I'm standing on top of the motherfucking
They took a shot, airball
You think I give a fuck about you pussys, not at all

A couple of loose screws ain't stopping a train from moving
A couple of bucks short of a bill and I'm still one hundred proofing
Under the heat like I been metal roofing in a trench coat and a black
Hooded
Head banging to heavy metal music
I'm now home thank god bamma it's home throwing rocks out the window
On 20, that's a milestone hello tomorrow,
Yesterday is now gone, I dedicate this song to me Fuck how wrong, shoe laced up with the Mainstream lace up, with the same team

That I came up with, bang what Changed the game up, like a change up
With a pain that a drain on to bitch you better remain up Bang what!, use to help weezy back up 50 pounds,
Green bay backin a bowl up
A broke soul packin the couch
But the landlord used to get me out
But I went from back at my house
To back to your house bitch, like

Look mama, no hands
I'm standing on top of the motherfucking hundred
They took a shot, airball
You think I give a fuck about you pussys, not at all
Yela, how's it going?
They took a shot, airball
You think I give a fuck about you pussys, not at all
