[Yelowolf]

Half of these muthaf-cking rappers don't know shit aint seen a gangsta aint seen a brick and then they wonder why when the OG's come around Yelowolf get the respect I get cause I never walked into another man's house and tell em what I think about the way he lives I done a little dirt of my own and I won't throw stones so I get back what I give reach for the two homeboy go ahead you wanna be dead, homie be dead who am I to be thinking that I won't pop a trunk if you feeling like a punk from the he said she said life's not a choice, it's a win or lose so what's it gonna be, him or you daddy lie on ya bed, is she lying to your head well it depends on the truth, huh see I'm realistic and everyday can't be terrific I just seen one of my boys get ticked off and put one of his hands his ?

lifted up in the air and somebody carry him into the club I know they wanted to bury him haha my crew is laughing, I was scared as f-ck and they thought it was hilarious damn really, thats how y'all do it shit

[Chorus]

the shit I've seen has changed me what used to be strange to me, just aint strange to me no more yeah, I done seen this sh-t before its just another day, outside my door outside my door the shit I've seen the shit I've seen has changed me what used to be strange to me,

Yelowolf and Trae The Truth bitch hit the floor

[Trae The Truth]

I let you take a second to introduce you to pain where everybody going through it and going insane the inner struggle but they focused on making they change anybody get it away and they making it rain if it go to me and then I probably do the same if I ever could I'll forever be repping the same game rapping off thinking I promise I'll get the same thing in the back of the Maybach somebody ? getting brain like I was only here to learn something when I'm done here trying to earn something? one thing bout me I guarantee I'll probably return something raise some drama then show up and try to burn something

I'll do my dirt and when I ? never pay it back I'm dealing with it and never take it the candys back the city never ?
? take a nap
wanna hit the block ? dreaming to get away
Yelawolf go get the whip I go this open the gate no way they could stop this when I'm with us they can tell us about this so pretty you can tell 'em it's not this

[Chorus]

[Yelawolf]

? I believe it's too hard dont reach for the dogs who believe the facades don't reach too far to compete with the dog because deep in the heart they wanna ? this all I wish I could be the one to say I warned ya dont pay any attention man I wanna ignore the haters but I can't afford to leave them alone they say yelawolf aint never been in the dark and trailerparks and made their mark I gotta make it hot cause I was given a pardon I gotta play the role serial killing rap, cause I had a serial code in every city with a serial ? when I rap, peer in my soul I'm in the light like a deer in the road clear in control, my spirit is old I'm hearing the Gold I'm hearing the foes, hoes and falls like a rock dont mean you hard like one you want the credit for getting gutter forget it you muthaf-ckers forgot the credit card and run street credit won't put bullets in ya gun but it might put a stray bullet in your son daughters, uncles, aunts, friends and nusiance become tangled up when it comes undone

[Chorus]
