I'm riding the night train
The smile is still burning
Dancing in my way
A mile for the lonely
A crown for the clown, I smile and I run

For years, now I'm driven
A smile, unforgiven
I'm dancing with strangers
Your eyes are still [Incomprehensible]

Awaiting your big smile
I'm rushing downtown while you're gone
For years now I'm driven
A smile unforgiven, the one

I'm riding the night train
The window's a mirror
I'm dancing with strangers
I'm waiting for you

Awaiting your big smile
I'm rushing downtown while you're gone

For years now I'm driven
A smile unforgiven, the one
A crown for the clown
A smiling crowd, and you're gone
For years now I'm driven
A smile unforgiven, the one
