"Princess Lala"

The sun had gone
Nine thirty
She felt so well
When she left her hotel
In a dress
Of green silk so tight
In a dress
Of green silk full of might
She's Princess Lala
Every night
She's a star
When she sings:
"I'm not a man, not a woman
I'm a queen"
She looks like a star
When she walks to the bar
A sleepy grin
She's longing for a friend
To celebrate another night
To celebrate the end of daylight
She's Princess Lala
Every night
She's a star
When she sings:
"I'm not a man, not a woman
I'm a queen
I'm a queen
I'm a queen
I'm a queen"
She sits at the bar
Plays a child
Looks in his eye
Asks him for a drink
Offers him a wink
His heart starts to burn
There is no return
She's Princess Lala
Every night
She's a star
When she sings:
"I'm not a man, not a woman
I'm a queen

I'm a queen
I'm a queen
I'm a queen"
