This is the last time
I'll bleed for you
I hold it all in
Cause you won't understand
It's easy for them to say
What I should do

I can't see the world
Through my jaded eyes
My faded broken gaze
Im afraid I'll see
The mistake I made
That I'll always regret

[chorus]
The worst has yet to come
I took your heart
And fumbled it
I don't want to feel this way
Just need to get away
I said Im sorry I
Made a big mistake

Who is it now?
She came in my life
Took my hand and
Showed me her love
I know she's there
I can feel her breathin'

[chorus]Ã

Wow what a girl
Such a beautiful girl
She saved my eyes
And I won't forget that
The worst has yet to come
