I knew a smoldering child.

He had shiny blue eyes, oooh.

And the dreams all sang,

as he superceded.

And the time would pass.

its a fatal cling on love.

So his eyes went grey,

and he knew he'd be there.

Boy sinister, bares every fire and every thrill on love

Boy sinister, will roll the rock upon the hill of love.

Boy sinister, despises day and seeks the night, oh no.

And the boy sinister always kills, kill at first sight.

I know a black dream child.

He never shows his eyes, oh no.

And a forgotten tune,

remains his best companion.

So his sweetest dream,

is nightmare for your earth.

Saw his grey-blue eys,

and they'll never come to rest.

Boy sinister, bares every fire and every thrill on love.

Boy sinister, will roll the rock upon the hill of love.

Boy sinister, despises day and seeks the night, oh no.

And the boy sinister always kills, kill at first sight.
