Words that won't come across
And worlds that never entwine us
And secrets that haven't seen light
And daydreams that haven't seen nights

So you dance like a stranger with me

Words when I try to speak
Mean nothing, or is it just me?
But to end it
To torch it in flames
We keep on playing these games, you see

Let's not mend it
The answer's needless
Why keep hoping
When things seem hopeless?

I send out all my soldiers
To find thee
They sail a thousand miles
Across the sea
Still you dance like a stranger with me

Let's not mend it
The answer needless
Why keep hoping
When things seem hopeless?
