Je suis um pamplemousse is what he said before he went away Sine amor est mortem is what she wrote before she took her life away God save the Queen is what he yelled before they shot him down They asked who else felt that way but noone, noone made a sound

Sometimes I think I'm the only one who understands I'm the only one
I could fix all the problems in the world
If I had a big enough gun

And I'm King of the Purple Guppies and I'm a man, hear me cry living on the edge of a tofu mentality and even god don't know why
