Seconds into life
I felt love inside
I can't explain
The memories
Recall your smiles
That day I had my first kiss
You know I couldn't wish
For a better beginning
A better start to life

And I want to know
I want to know

Who blessed me with time
To have you in my life
I opened my eyes
For the very first time
And you were there
You, were, there

Lest we forget
How Fortunate
I was born into a world
Of freedom and light
Let the road examine
I look back at you my friends
And think about what a blessed life

Cause you were there to hold my hand
You were there to sing me grace

So who blessed me with time
To have you in my life
I opened my eyes
For the very first time
Who blessed me with time
To have you in my life
I opened my eyes
For the very first time

Cause you were there to hold my hand

You were there to sing me grace
You were there to see me cryin'
You were there to wipe the tears away
Cause you were there to hold my hand
You were there to sing me grace
You were there to see me cryin'
You were there to wipe the tears away

So who blessed me with time
To have you in my life
I opened my eyes
For the very first time
Who blessed me with time
To have you in my life
I opened my eyes
For the very first time
And you were there
You
Were
There
