The Way You Move Me

Tonight I give myself to you

You have the key to my soul

Free to look inside my mind

You are the first to get close

We're lying here together now

I hear you breathing peacefully

Moving closer to you

The night is dark and I'm afraid you go

The way you move me

The way you touch me

Strip me down and you will see

Tears falling down my cheek

And if You leave Me I will bleed

Until you come and rescue me

The way you move me

The way you touch me

Tonight I give myself to you

I hope this night never ends

And in the morning you will leave

And I'll be lying here to bleed

Now your sleeping in my arms
It feels so good to have you near
But I can't get no sleep tonight
I hope this night never ends
The way you move me
The way you touch me
