"Experience To Write"

Visit "Experience To Write" on MotoLyrics.com

To the creator of the world,
I would love to tell you that this ride of life is going smoothly.
As a soft hand on flawless skin.
And I will write to change and experience to write.
And I'll fall again just to be picked up by the power of the mind.
And right now I will refer back to my life
As being like a soft hand on flawless skin, I have been blessed beyond.
To the people that ruin this world,
I will nullify your negativity,
I will make every last attempt, to go on.
And I will write to change experience to write.
And I'll fall again just to be picked up by the power of the mind.
And right now I will refer back to my life
As being like a soft hand on flawless skin, I have been so blessed.
I will write to change your life and experience,
experience to write
About the happenings that take place, from the day to the night.
I will write to change your life and experience,
experience,
Write, I will change your life and experience, experience, so Write, I will write to change your, write to change your life
