This is the first of many nights on the road
The "fact of the matter" and "truth be told"
I'm running out of sayings, this is getting old
Cuz lies disguise themselves as the truth
I see you screamin from the top of the roof
I just hope that you know, that no one's listening

The only difference is the distance of your words and
Who they're told to
There's no place in the entire world
That would make me come back to you
When the truth comes out
I'm sure you'll stay in
You're tryin you're trying you're trying
But you can't win

This could be the best chance you ever had
So sorry that it's over
This could be the best chance you ever had
So sorry that it's over

I'm takin a break, I'm making you wait
For what comes next
Leavin you in suspense
I just hope I can pry these words outta my chest
Cuz it feels like they're stuck in there
And it feels like
I shouldn't care but I do
I do

The only difference is the distance of your words and
Who they're told to
There's no place in the entire world
That would make me come back to you
When the truth comes out
I'm sure you'll stay in
You're tryin you're trying you're trying
But you can't win
The only difference is the distance of your words and
Who they're told to (So sorry that it's over)
There's no place in the entire world

That would make me come back to youâ€!
When the truth comes out
I'm sure you'll stay in
You're tryin you're trying you're trying
But you can't win

This could be the best chance you ever had
So sorry that it's over
This could be the best chance you ever had
So sorry that it's over (repeats while song fades out)
