Can you feel it?

Banana peel it,

Locked down like a lid, I seal it,

We gonna shuffle and deal it!

Because we are the Psycho Nubs, everybody,

And it's time to quit your relaxing, and take to action,

'Cause we're going to put some pep in your step,

And some fever in your beaver,

And take all you motherfuckers on a Psycho-riffic,

Nub, nub, nubular ride!

Walking down these steps to nowhere,

If you want to, we can go there,

Sinking down into the dungeon,

I just want to show you something.

Rock and Roll Basement, that's where I want to be,

Rock and Roll Basement, for that subterranean catastrophe,

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah!

Hey!

Walking down these steps to nowhere,

If you want to we can go there,

Come on down and join the function,

It's all-prudent at this junction.

Rock and Roll Basement, that's where I'm going to be,

Rock and Roll Basement, for that subterranean
blasphemy,

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah!

Sinking down into the dungeon,

I just want to show you something,

Gonna play loud 'till the cops show up,

And then we're gonna get drunk

'Till we wanna throw up.

Rock and Roll Basement, it's where the dead,

They go to kill,

Rock and Roll Basement, you know they do it for a thrill,

Rock and Roll Basement, you never pay to see the show,

Rock and Roll Basement, for that good old

Nubby Rock and Roll!

Rock and Roll!
