Another night at home baby
Drinking on my own

I lay down, but I can't rest my head
All these words I wish had gone unsaid
Hangman's noose is tight around my neck
Woah
'Cos I'm the king and you're the queen
And you've got me in check

Whoah-oh-oh

The poison runs through my veins
And I won't fall asleep tonight
Until, you're by my side

Another night at home baby drinking on my own
Sticks and stone may break my bones but
Crackin' hearts is a dying art
Footsteps in the corridor, stilettos in the shadows
But oh baby the time has come now
Take her to the gallows

Whoah-oh-oh

The poison runs through my veins
And I won't fall asleep tonight
Until, you're by my side

Whoah-oh-oh

The poison runs through my veins
And I won't fall asleep tonight
Until, you're by my side
