Church bell tolls and we gather round
Struggling to hear the sound
Our betters and superiors
Will lead the sermon

Talking condescendingly
Of all that we aspire to be,
Cos everyones your friend
When you are rich and famous

Everything that we could want
A new Ferrari they can flaunt
A bimbo or toy boy there
For all occasions

But fame is fleeting and they know
So off to church now they all go
Fall at the blessed altar
And they pray for yet more

Money, Sex, Celebrity
The modern holy trinity
We want them but we can't get them all
So we set our idols up to fall

Read about them everyday
Some wish they would go away
Celebrities endemic in our
Dumbed down culture

Whether it's at 3am
Or speaking out against GM
Or helping to save Africa
From near extinction

Still that fascination lasts,
Hoping we still have the chance
To strike the jackpot, win it big
Find fame and fortune

So if this is your wish my friend,

Down on your knees now you must bend
And sing with me to up on high
To grant you all this

Money, Sex, Celebrity
The modern holy trinity
We want them but we can't get them all
So we set our idols up to fall

Money, Sex, Celebrity
