Whooooaa-ooooh
Hey!!

Siren's song sounds deathly sleeping into me.
(Whoa-oh)
Normality's a state of mind but contradiction's always intertwined
(Whoa-oh)
She whispers coyly from the park, her figure hidden in the perma-dark.
(Whoa-oh)
Memories are drifting out to sea
(Whoa-oh)

'Cos this life- you lead
Is not the life for me
Nothingness and Infamy
'Cos shining stars are always free

Whooooaa-ooooh

Fiesta's been spraying down their light on me
(Whoa-oh)
For all it's worth I'd swear it that I still can't see.
(Whoa-oh)
Why on earth you still hanging around?
You'll live and die in this (whoa-oh) broken town
(She said) "Strange affairs of the human heart"
But why can't you believe (whoa-oh) that

This life (this life)- you lead (you lead)
Is not the life for me
Nothingness and Infamy
'Cos shining stars are always free

This life (this life)- you lead (you lead)
Is not the life for me
Nothingness and Infamy
'Cos shining stars are always free

This life - you lead

Is not the life for me
This life- you lead
Is not the life for me
This life- you lead
Is not the life for me
This life- you lead....

This life (this life)- you lead (you lead)
Is not the life for me
Nothingness and Infamy
'Cos shining stars are always free

This life (this life)- you lead (you lead)
Is not the life for me
Nothing less than Infamy
'Cos shining stars are always free
