[Chorus: Infinite] I'm my brother's, brother's keeper Through the struggle, our bond is deeper I know you'll be there, when I need ya Cuz we're brothers, brother's keeper [The Reverend William Burk] Nevertheless, release fighting Sibling rivalries, my kin'll still ride for me I'm back to society, killas be moving silently The world steady trying me, my girl steady trying me Atleast I got my brother, he never 'fraid to die wit me Through our trials and tribulations, it's tortorous With a bulletproof bond, hell fire ain't even scorching this Ten times stronger than the magic of a sorceress And never put a broad first, no matter how gorgeous she is With rugged warriors, always come out victorious Our battles be the gloriest, but that's just how the story is Love is love love, and all is fair in love & war My comrad a killer, to the solid core which we adore I got your back like a chiropractor blood pure [Chorus] [RZA] Yo, no other could compare to a brother, even from another mother We bond and love her, our spirits hover over each other In mutual conflits, change together like convicts I hold you up by my shoulders, under your armpits He ain't heavy, he my broham, ready for the program Whether busting shots, throwing blocks, swinging swords, throwing hands They can end to the end, not near friends A kin beyond skin complexion, a hard connection God protection, loyal, without question My heart is his heart, my possession his possession Although life is daily right, makes us sometimes appear weaker I'm still there for you brother, I'm my brother's keeper Blessed be the meak, if we strive and to be meaker Plus, we flow together like the mic through the speaker Through good times and bad times, happy or sad times Anytime, all the time, until we reach a flatline Link like medallions to cables, mixers to turntables Never turn on each other, like Cain did to Abel Nah, we stay stable, from the grave to the cradle And after I save myself, I promise I will save you Cuz you my brother, and my brother's keeper You my brother, and I'm my brother's keeper [Chorus]
