With both feet in front of you, look away once and eaten alive.
So, don't you stagger.
Make a mistake or two and put at the sharp end of a knife
that cuts like daggers.
Maybe, now I'm a stranger in this whole town.
Better turn that attitude around.

With a brilliant sound, burning holes
into the table you sit around.
I look up to you so don't throw out brilliant sound.

A restless night's sleep and you're there.
She should have become your release, instead your capture.
To yourself have you been fair?
Betrayal in-between the sheets.
As you swallow rapture, I wonder how you don't stand up
and hold your ground.
What the hell is wrong with you?

Don't throw out
Don't throw it out
Brilliant Sound

With a brilliant sound, burning holes
into the table you're sitting around.
I look up to you, so don't throw out brilliant sound.

Don't throw out
Don't throw it out
Brilliant Sound
