Hey there I look and see what is that Fluttering up there in the bright blue sky Hey now it's in the toll green grass so colorful I think #is a mother fly oh and my worries are going now beautifully flying up the winding trail
But I can catch up cause I am a spunky jumpy lam
I think he likes my fluffy little tail
Would you look that view from here
A thousand miles and there is a sparkle streaming
.. of those wings happily glide oh what a mighty fine thing
My I think I wonder from the fall again
From the good Sheppard who I love the most
He must be sad for me again
So I cry for him cry the only way I know
Oh dear is getting a little cold for me
And a little bit scary alone in the dark you see
Oh what is that I think I hear something wrong
Is something coming
Oh what could it be
But is the good Sheppard back or me
Sorry I wondered a butterfly a tree
But he took me and warmed in his coat
He was so happy he did a little jick with me
Back we skipped down to the fall again
I was unberessed so he hit me in his arms
He let me sleep in the house that night
Down by the fire side all so cozy and warm
I don't know but I think I am the happiest lamb Though I am distracted and easily give in Cause my good shepherd is always there for me
Waiting for me to jump in his arms again
Waiting for me to jump in his arms again
