[Intro: Li-Mouse] Yeah, you know, it's just that time Where everything's gotta come to that end So we can send, word... It's just, you know, I had mad fun It's been a good time But yo, but yo, but yo [Li-Mouse] Season One; the ending credits We run through programs with, little edits A project, that lasted four years Finally done, but I'mma hold back my tears Cause I know, they'll be another Rip more tracks with my hip hop brother Yeah, Order Rodentia we out of here Give a rest, to your brain and ears Give it up, put your hands together The Rodentz, you know we gonna last forever All you haters, we sever Your head from your shoulder in rainy weather Aiyo, I'mma see you, next season Get the album, you need no reason (no reason) My final word, take it easy (take it easy) Live life to the fullest and make sure you ain't sleezy kid (yo, but yo, but yo) [Cno Evil] No more intruding, no more confusion This is the conclusion, the Season Finale The Rodentz, no, it's not an illusion We gettin' play now from New York to Cali Don't stand close to the ledge, if you don't know Cuz now, we more 'serious' than satellite radio Cno, wherever he appears, chaos follows While your tired empty flows, leave you sleepy and hollow All this contribution, make you feel right Countless working nights, tweek this til it's tight Leave it in the dark and drop a little light Perepheals don't work for us, we out of your sight This moment shines, I take my curtain call Five foot five, I stand taller than all of ya'll Unique achieveness with the Emmy nominations We win the award, receiving the standing ovations
