Just an ordinary day
All around it seems okay
With a normal view

Then you open up your eyes
Suddenly you realize
Everyone is confused

Caught in the middle
Of the life and fantasy
Caught in the middle
Is where you seem to be

Yeah, yeah, yeah

Everyone around is sad
But they analyze you mad
Sayin' you've lost your mind

Seems their lives have been abused
With a risk of being used
No happiness to find

Caught in the middle
Of the life and fantasy
Caught in the middle
Is where you seem to be

Seems the whole society
In the world's insanity
Sayin' you've lost your mind

Seems their lives have been abused
With the risk of being used
No happiness to find

Caught in the middle
Of the life and fantasy
Caught in the middle
Is where you seem to be
