Fallen angel show the signs
He's no stranger in your eyes
He's immortal,
He's forever
From the portal his demons shall dance
Burning skies, now the four
Horsemen ride along the shore
Across the sea, the beast will rise
You will be sacrificed
Revelation tells end of days
Never ending masquerade,
All pretending death's charade
Burning skies, now the four
Horsemen ride along the shore
Across the sea the beast will rise
You will be sacrificed
Revelation tells end of days

Fallen angel show the signs
He's no stranger in your eyes
He's immortal,
He's forever
From the portal his demons shall dance
Burning skies, now the four
Horsemen ride along the shore
Across the sea, the beast will rise
You will be sacrificed
Revelation tells end of days
