You came to me
You said you were my friend
I shared my art and my mind
You found it easier to steal than create
Then call it your's, though it's mine

You can't fight, what is right
Face the truth, liar
You can't feel, you just steal
Face the truth, liar, liar

You smile in my face
When I turn around
You stick a knife in my back

You think you're clever
You know you're insane
You're lies are not white they are black

You can't fight, what is right
Face the truth, liar
You can't feel, you just steal
Face the truth, liar
Liar

Liar
Liar

You can't fight, what is right
Face the truth, liar
You can't feel, you just steal
Face the truth, liar

You can't fight, what is right
Face the truth, liar
You can't feel, you just steal
Face the truth, liar
Liar
Liar
