Teaser, teaser, teaser

Getting dressed for the masquerade
To be the main attraction
Might become someone someday
With the right connection

You might find the night so lonely
But you're not the only one
I just wanna go with ecstasy
To the river of love we run

Teaser, you set my heart on fire
Teaser, put out the flames of my desire

If you let me stay inside
I'll give satisfaction
In the night we'll lose our way
Right in the tunnel of love we ride

Teaser, you set my heart on fire
Teaser, put out the flames of my desire
Teaser, you set my heart on fire
Teaser, put out the flames of my desire

I guess we all need someone

Teaser, you set my heart on fire
Teaser, put out the flames of my desire
Teaser, you set my heart on fire
Teaser, put out the flames of my desire
