"Time Will Tell"

I've never killed another man, never lived the master plan
I can only pray that we'll survive
With every sin and whitened line, see the future slipping by
The time is nearing, what have we done

Is there a reason someone explain?
And in the end will we pay?
Time will tell, I will

The hands of time we can't turn back
Have we all slipped through the cracks
Lord have mercy, forgive us all

Is there a reason someone explain?
And in the end will we pay?
Time will tell, I will
Time will tell, I will

There's no use looking back every thing's turning black
Time's running out for us all

Is there a reason someone explain?
And in the end will we pay?
Is there a reason someone explain?
And in the end will we pay?
Time will tell, I will
Time will tell, I will
