I was carried to you by the hands of my fate
Though it was too late
I wasn't the type that believed in true love at first sight
You changed it to the right

I know what I feel, this is real
Give you my body and soul
Let your resistance drop
Don't have to stop by the siren's call

I cry, I try, so tell me what do you want?
I cry, I try, oh baby what do you want?

I'm not the type to believe in a second chance
Or in sweet romance
I'm no beginner, been fooling around before
Still coming back for more

Today is different
It was meant and I've found a reason
I know what I feel, this is real
There's more than one season

I cry, I try, so tell me what do you want?
I cry, I try, oh baby what do you want?
Time to think it over

What do you want?
I cry, I try, oh baby what do you want?
I cry, I try, so tell me what do you want?

I cry, I try, oh baby what do you want?
I cry, I try, so tell me what do you want?
